In this issue...

of the Van Zorge Report on Indonesia our Feature looks at Indonesia's position on Burma and asks, just what is influencing the government's non-confrontational stance? We also include an interview with a member of the ASEAN Inter-Parliamentary Myanmar Caucus, Dr. Muhammad A.S. Hikam.

From the Editor considers the Supreme Court's recent overturning of another Commercial Court ruling and what this means for the country's bankruptcy regime.

Intelligence fills in the missing blanks of an Australian story about special treatment handed out to some of the convicted Bali bombers. It also details the strange case of a Papuan activist being held in Jakarta for the contravention of a law which no longer exists.

Parliament Watch goes behind the scenes at the DPR to find out just what has happened to the national security bill.

Our In Brief section discusses the findings of report into the February crash of a Garuda plane, looks at the possible implications for foreigners of a Constitutional Court ruling on the death penalty and presents the latest US government report on religious freedom in Indonesia.
