In this Christmas double issue...

of the Van Zorge Report on Indonesia our Feature section looks back at the developments of the past year, with a broad overview of all the important political scandals, legal decisions and international events to involve Indonesia. So just how did Indonesia progress in 2007? Judge for yourself, by reading Currents, our 2007 Timeline and Loose Ends sections.

Our From the Editor section has editor-in-chief James Van Zorge examine the problems surrounding international divestment by casting the spotlight on American miner Newmont's attempts to hand over shares in subsidiary PT Newmont Nusa Tenggara to an Indonesian partner.

Intelligence uncovers the latest development in a recent anti-trust ruling affecting the nation's telecommunications sector and Singaporean firm Temasek, and details a key Golkar Party strategy for early 2008.

Our In Brief section examines the changes to campaign funding rules with the passing of the new law on political parties. We also take a background look at the plans to once again dust off the Bank Indonesia Liquidity Support case and scrutinise the selection of Antasari Azhar to head the Corruption Eradication Commission.

Parliament Watch gauges the progress, or lack of it, in the House of Representatives during the past year.

We hope that you find this issue useful and of interest to yourself and your colleagues. Please feel free to contact us here at the Report if you have any comments or suggestions; we are genuinely grateful for your feedback. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
