

VAN ZORGE REPORT ON INDONESIA

COMMENTARY & ANALYSIS ON INDONESIAN POLITICS AND ECONOMICS

INSIDE ISSUE VI / 1:

FROM THE EDITOR	3
POLITICS:	4
Golkar's Political Flux
Indonesia's most experienced and arguably strongest political party is in flux. While still very much regarded as the frontrunner in the coming legislative election, events over the past two months have highlighted the internal friction within the party which could cause a leadership crisis ahead of the all-important presidential election.
JAKARTA POLITICS	8
Life in the Big Durian
In the first of a two-part series, the Van Zorge Report will look at the national phenomenon that is Jakarta. In this first edition on Jakarta politics, we present a primer on the political and economic significance of the capital city, followed by an extensive and frank interview with a potential player in Jakarta politics.
INTERVIEW: SARWONO KUSUMA'ATMADJA	18
"...It's an Organized Scam"
As a Jakarta candidate for the Regional Representative's Council (DPD), senior politician Sarwono Kusuma'atmadja speaks about City Hall politics, the future of Jakarta and the impact of genuine provincial representation in the national political fora.
PRESENTATION: H.E. EZZAT SAAD EL SAYED	22
Middle Eastern Perspectives on Terrorism, and Relations with the West
Egyptian Ambassador Ezzat Saad El Sayed gives an elaborate presentation of how mutually held misperceptions and the erroneous association of Islam with terrorism, has only compounded the ignorance of the world's fastest growing religion.
