In this issue...

of the Van Zorge Report on Indonesia, we present an in-depth feature on institutional reform within the Corruption Eradication Commission, the Anti-Monopoly Commission, and at the Supreme Audit Board. In Watchdogs at work, the Report looks at successes, failures, and obstacles to reform at the three organisations as well as some personalities involved.

In the From the Editor section, we examine the ongoing earthquake relief efforts in Yogyakarta and identify some hang-ups to date in the efforts as well as some recommendations that could help the region get back up and running faster.

In Brief looks at the recent violence in East Timor and whether retroactive powers could be used by the Corruption Eradication Commission to prosecute former President Soeharto. An Avian Flu update is also provided as is a short obituary for John Bresnan who passed away May 24.

We hope that you find this issue useful and of interest to yourself and your colleagues. Please feel free to contact us here at the Report if you have any comments or suggestions; we are genuinely grateful for your feedback.
