In this issue...

of the Van Zorge Report on Indonesia, we present a range of views on President Yudhoyono's progress to date. Through five interviews with a broad range of respondents, we highlight points of consensus and disagreement on President Yudhoyono's political record.

Van Zorge Heffernan's own analysis of President Yudhoyono's progress is presented in the From the Editor section.

In Brief looks at the implications of Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad's visit to Indonesia, analyses the motives behind the recent changes at the top in the tax office, and gives an update on illegal logging. The highly sensitive case of corruption charges against former President Soeharto is also examined.

As well, we present our usual feature, Intelligence, which locates the weak link in the fight against Avian Flu, the reason behind the reticence of Saudi Arabia to invest in Indonesia, and an Ambassadorial change to the Singapore Embassy in Jakarta.

We hope that you find this issue useful and of interest to yourself and your colleagues. Please feel free to contact us here at the Report if you have any comments or suggestions; we are genuinely grateful for your feedback.
