In this special corruption issue ...

of the Van Zorge Report on Indonesia we present The great KKN debate, which covers Van Zorge Heffernan's recent The Executive Network (TEN) event and a Jakarta Foreign Correspondents Club presentation held to discuss Indonesia's unique corruption question.

In From the Editor, James Van Zorge provides a brief history of corruption in emerging democracies and offers Indonesia a suggestion.

Intelligence reveals details of the Indonesia/Timor-Leste Commission of Truth and Friendship's final report into the 1999 violence and explains why the document is gathering dust on President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono's desk.

Our Political Briefs section looks at the progress of the Munir assassination investigation and why it appears to be gathering pace. A second article looks at former President Abdurrahman Wahid's ongoing battle for control of the National Awakening Party and its disastrous consequences.

Our Industry Briefs section presents three stories, including an article on the increasing buzz surrounding Indonesia's coalbed methane potential.

We hope that you find this issue useful and of interest to yourself and your colleagues. Please feel free to contact us here at the Report if you have any comments or suggestions; we are genuinely grateful for your feedback.
